Montreal, July 13, 2011 - 107.3 RockDétente is very proud to announce today that Normand Brathwaite and Claudine Prévost will be joining its animation team, starting in the fall.

A key figure in Quebec showbiz, Normand Brathwaite has over 30 years of experience as a host, actor, comedian, singer and musician. Normand made his mark in Quebec as one of the most popular radio hosts of all time, and at the helm of several landmark TV shows, including Belle et Bum, Piment Fort and Beau et Chaud.. Normand has also hosted the Gémeaux awards gala no less than 14 times, in addition to hosting National Day shows on numerous occasions, both in Montreal and in Quebec City. Recipient of several Métrostar and Gémeaux, and inducted in 2003 as a television immortal, Normand Brathwaite has above all known how to remain over the years one of the personalities most appreciated by the Quebec public.

Recognized for several years in the Quebec media world, Claudine Prévost has distinguished herself both on the radio and on television, where she notably co-hosted the program Belle et Bum with Normand Brathwaite, on the airwaves of Télé-Québec, for more than 4 years. Claudine was also a reporter for Flash (TQS) and Sucré Salé (TVA) and can currently be seen at the helm of the program L'index québécois on Musimax. Claudine Prévost, a radio buff and passionate about music, remains one of the greatest musical references in Quebec!

"We are extremely happy to welcome these two talented presenters to our team, who have accumulated many years of experience and who will be able to share their passion for music with our listeners," comments Johanne Cloutier, Content Director of 107.3 RockRelaxation.

107.3 RockDétente wishes Normand Brathwaite and Claudine Prévost a warm welcome to its team and looks forward to seeing you on August 18 for all the details concerning the new RockDétente program!
